LANIER HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS
WE LEAD
MACON - 1924 - GEORGIA

Hello! This is Betty Garrard and this is Cecil Whitaker of Miller and Lanier Senior High Schools. May we tell you something?

Sometimes when people just have to talk and want to talk about things that mean a lot to them, they realize then just how deep their feelings really are. Now, near the end of our last year in high school, we appreciate more than ever before our years in school. We, the editors of the 1955 annual, are proud of our schools and of all that they have given us. And we want to show to someone—an outsider, maybe—some of the things we associate with these days.

This outsider, this imaginary visitor, can be any person from any town anywhere. He can arrive on any train, be met by any group of students and be introduced to our schools anytime during the year.

We shall enjoy having him know people and places that mean so much to us. We shall take him through every phase of life at Miller and Lanier. By introducing him to these different phases, we believe that he will understand these mixed-up, deep-rooted feelings of ours.

Now let's imagine the arrival of that person. But say—why don't we imagine that you are that person? Will you be our guest?

That's fine! We do welcome you and hope that we can make your visit with us one that you will long remember. Let's imagine . . .

It was many and many a year ago
In a Toyland far away
That the dolls there lived whom you may know
Awoke and began to play.
They knew they all had talent
As they danced to and fro,
So they put their heads together
And made plans for a show.
There were all sorts of dolls, as you can imagine,
Baby dolls, brides, and a clown.
A sailor boy and a hindu doll,
And a flapper of great renown.
They decided to have a scotch crack squad
Doing the highland fling,
And another crack squad of wooden soldiers
Doing most everything.
The dancers would come from Junior Toyland—
Raggedy Anns they would be.
And the little toy clowns would make pyramids
As they jump from toe to knee.
All of Toyland was put into groups
Companies they were called.
A captain and lieutenant head them
And they were quite enthralled.
And here's the result of this interesting day . . .
The roll call now begins—
These Miller High dolls who have worked so hard
Now take their places among friends.

Exhibition assembly which featured "Toyland Dolls."

First to come forth are the spry young aides
Who do all the odds and ends—
Kay Lamar and Helen McClesky
Who follow the sailor trends.
A little boy doll and a maid lieutenant
Shall lead Company One
The captain, Ann Flynt, the lieutenant, Rachel Balkcom
Should bring them lots of fun.
For Company Two—Captain Bettie Sue Sikes
Apears with lasso in hand—
And right behind, Lieutenant Ann Carey
Who is second in command.
The attire of this lassie needs no introduction.
Peggy Roland, lieutenant Company Three
And the brand new doll, Captain Jane Whitaker
A maid doll she will be.
And next in line, Captain Elaine Carpenter
Carries a Company Four pennant.
While Mildred Matthews who desires to be a bride
Is just a plain lieutenant.
As soon as they lead Company Five
To the end of this fiesta,
Minnie Lee Strozier and Marjorie Copeland
Will return to their Mexican siesta.
This combination hillbilly and cowgirl
Must be full of tricks.
Captain Joan Perdue and Lieutenant Anne Blakely
Why, this is Company Six!
This captain goes back to the 1920's
It's flapper Gail Leggett.
Well, who is lieutenant for Company Seven?
Why Mime Lanier, we bet.
Doreen Roberts is in the clown suit
A hindu doll is Barbara Groce.
No doubt this will help the Company Eight dolls
To come through with the most.
It could not be that Company Nine
Needs a nurse and a mammy doll, too.
But Peggy Collins and Kay Shaw.
Leave Toyland just for you.
Leoniece Davis joined the Navy and saw the world
She's captain of this crew.
But little Lord Fontleroy, oh, no, it's Camille Caskin
Whatever can you do?
Company Eleven—Captain Deanne Dodson
Is a dollie, you can see,
But Hong Kong, Chop Suey—
Gertrude Crouse is lieutenant-to-be.
Toyland is about to close.
But where can the big three be?
Let's wind them up and send them in.
They're probably full of glee.
We need a major for the big bass drum
There's always one in Toyland.
The one selected should be very good.
Kathryn Carstarphen, take your stand!
The lieutenant colonel is pacing the floor.
No doubt you've made your guess.
She's all dressed up like an Indian squaw
It's Wilma Freeman, oh yes!
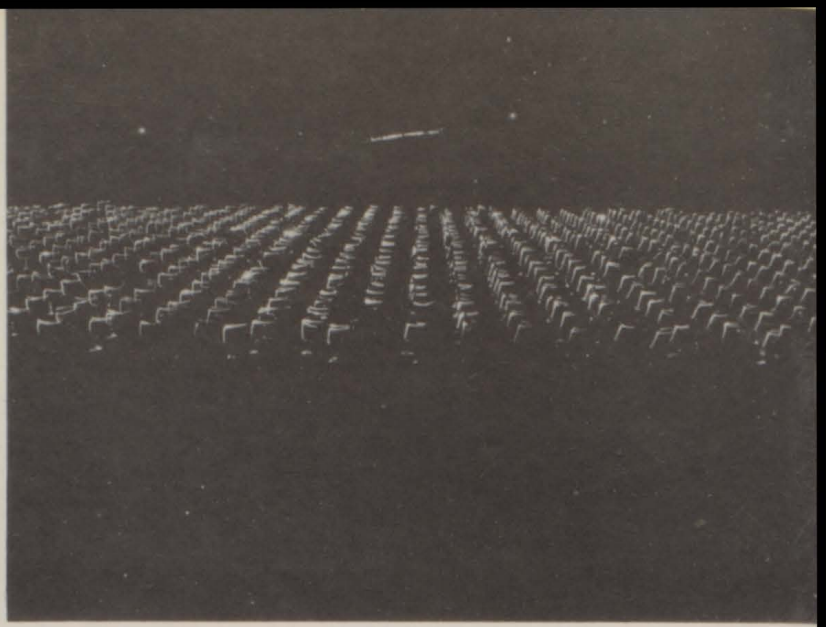
The colonel should be all wound up
And come running without a word;
For all Toyland waits to embrace
The colonel—Reita Byrd!

Point those toes, gals!



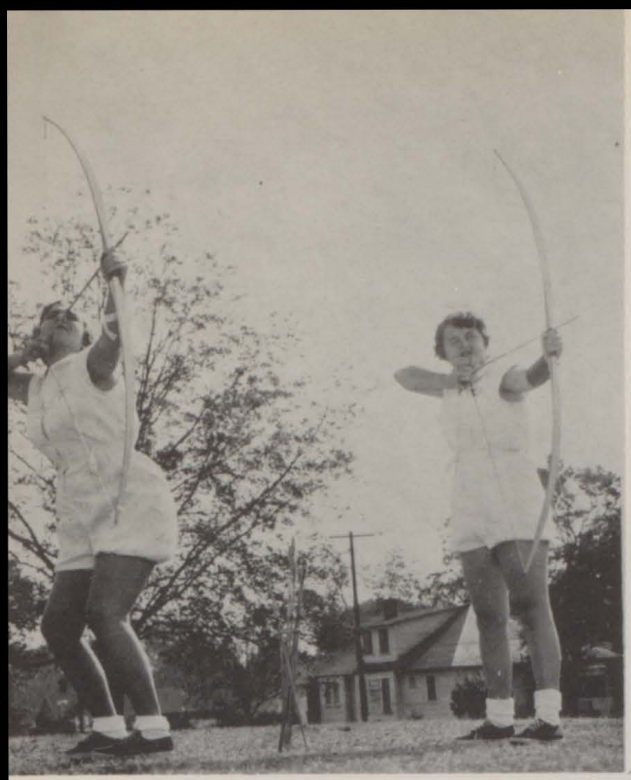
Flashlights on!

Hold . . . 2, 3, 4.

Hold . . . 2, 3, 4.

Oh, those aching backs!

Crack squad forms "top hat" to go with their "tails."



I shot an arrow
into the air,
It fell to earth
in Junior High Square.

Troubles?

Feet sprawling, chair upturned—only Madge could be underneath . . . Older members escorting adolescent sophomores on merry-go-round . . . Flash bulbs that won't flash . . . What happened to the man with the lights? . . . "Thanks for the flowers" . . . Dig that "mixed-up" jukebox . . . "What do you want for your no-break?" . . . Tin-foil covering a moon? . . . Hey there, you with the stars you're drawing . . . "Long Lost Meetings" . . . A nice (?) surprise—recording of club meeting.

First row: Barbara Deas, Madge Tucker, Pat O'Reilly, Ruth Kitchens, Shirley Eddleman, Margaret Harvey, Nancy Lewis. Second row: Beverly Harris, Pat Scarbrough, Irene Register, Shirley Wheelers, Ann Molton, Ann Huff, DeLores Boyer, Nancy Mayfield, Pat Bullock. Third row: Faye Wilcox, Mary Edna Tucker, Donna Lee Hurst, Patricia Williams, Barbara Whitehead. Boots Kelly, Lou Nell Epps, Ann Riner, June Herrington, Ann Peacock.

We think you must meet Sergeant Bell of Lanier's Military Department. This department is quite important to all of us, and it plays a big part in our school life.
